NEW-YORK, December 15.

To his Excellency Sir CHARLES HARDY, Knt. Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Province of New-York, and Territories depending thereon in America, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

The Humble ADDRESS of the General Aſſembly of the ſaid Province.

May it please your Excellency,

WE his majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the general aſſembly of the colony of New York, beg leave to offer your excellency our moſt hearty thanks for your ſpeech, and to welcome your ſafe return to this city.

The earneſt endeavours your excellency has manifeſted for his majeſty's ſervice, in ſupport of the expedition againſt Crown Point, merits the higheſt applauſe: And tho' our ſucceſs in that enterprize, has not been equal to our wiſhes, yet the advantage gained by his majeſty's arms, under major general Johnſon, deſerves notice; as to that is to be imputed, the ſafety of our frontiers in general, and the protection of our unhappy fellow ſubjects in particular, whom a hard lot has thrown ſo near a cruel enemy, from whoſe barbarous hands we cannot doubt, they would have received the ſame mercileſs treatment they have always hitherto met with.

The meaſures taken to ſecure our northern frontiers by erecting forts, and placing ſufficient gariſons in them, in order to guard againſt any attempts of the enemy, are wholeſome, and well judged, and we ſhall not fail to fall upon means to defray our part of the expence attending them.

We wiſh we could with equal ſatisfaction, reconcile to ourſelves your excellency's recommendation of an indefinite ſupport: But humbly beg leave to inform your excellency, that we have no permanent funds on which to eſtabliſh ſuch a revenue, nor do any occur to us, without very apparent inconveniences to our conſtituents We therefore moſt humbly hope, we ſhall ſtand acquitted in the eyes of our moſt gracious ſovereign, if we decline a meaſure ſo directly oppoſite to the ſentiments of almoſt every individual of the colony. We cannot leave this ſubject, without diſcloſing to your excellency, the concern it gives us, that this his majeſty's loyal colony, which, tho' ſmall in numbers, has chearfully borne very heavy expences, and particularly ſupported its governors, and other officers of government, in a more liberal manner than moſt others on the continent, ſhould be requeſted to purſue meaſures hitherto unknown to it, whilſt the reſt almoſt without exception, are left to practiſe the very meaſures denied to us.

We have already before us, a bill for regulating the militia of this colony; and ſhall immediately proceed to the conſideration of ſuch others as the ſituation of the colony at this critical juncture may require.

With the moſt profound reſpect for the beſt of kings, we acknowledge his majeſty's paternal care of theſe his diſtreſſed colonies: And every ſentiment of duty and gratitude which may be expected from a people perfectly ſenſible of favours ſo eminent, your excellency may be aſſured to meet with from the inhabitants of this colony.

By Order of the General Aſſembly,
Aſſembly Chamber, City of New-York, 9th December, 1755.

DAVID JONES, Speaker.

GENTLEMEN,

I Return you my thanks for your addreſs, and the notice you have taken of my endeavours, in ſupport of the expedition againſt Crown Point.

The advantage gained by the provincial troops under the command of major general Johnſon, have certainly conduced to the ſafety of the colonies in general: And the forts conſtructed by them if properly garriſoned, will protect the people from the enemy.

His majeſty having conſtituted this his province into a government, juſtly expects a ſupport of that government, by a permanent revenue, ſettled by a law that ſhall be indefinite: And as to the Funds or means of raiſing that ſupport, it lies with you, the repreſentatives of the people, whom I am extremely happy, to find ſtudious of, and ſo gratefully acknowledging his majeſty's [illegible]

[illegible] New-York,
[illegible] December 16, 1755.

CHARLES-TOWN, January 22.

Capt. Fry who arrived here laſt Tueſday, was beat off this Coaſt on Chriſtmas Day, and obliged to put into Providence, to ſtop a Leak. By him we learn, that ſeveral other Veſſels have been obliged to put in there: And that His Majeſty's Ship Garland was arrived at the ſame Place, with a Store ſhip under Convoy, having on board Cannon, &c for that Iſland.
